

Sam Letzring, Diagnostic Development Group Leader, is shown adjusting the holographic transmission grating used to temporally shear the laser beam before it passes through the electro-optic phase modulator in the smoothing by spectral dispersion (SSD) scheme, which was recently implemented on the OMEGA laser system.